

2005 ORGANIZATION OF THE YEAR

The Arizona Diamondbacks were named the Topps Organization of the Year for 2005 during the annual Baseball Winter Meetings held in December 2004 in Dallas. It was the first such award for the D-backs, who have had a minor league system in place since 1996, with the big league club beginning play two years later.

The Topps Baseball Organization of the Year Award is presented annually to a Major League organization based on the number of players in their system who have received Topps awards during the season. Points are awarded for four different minor league categories including All-Star players, Players of the Month, the Trautman and Taylor Spink Award recipients, and for Major League rookies who made the Topps Rookie All-Star team.

The D-backs' individual winners were: Phil Avlas (August P.O.M. - California League); Lorenzo Cain (Trautman Award - Arizona League); Matt Elliott and Carlos Gonzalez (Class A All-Star Team - Midwest League); Andy Green (Class AAA All-Star Team/Trautman Award - Pacific Coast League); Conor Jackson (Class AAA All-Star Team - Pacific Coast League); Miguel Montero (May P.O.M. - California League); Dustin Nippert (August P.O.M. - Southern League); and Dan Uggla (Class AA All-Star Team - Southern League).

Topps is an international marketer of entertainment products, principally collectable picture cards, confections and sticker collections.

A PERFECT NIGHT IN ATLANTA

Adept at setting records throughout his Major League career, Randy Johnson added something new to his impressive resume when he retired all 27 Atlanta Braves he faced on May 18, 2004, in Turner Field. At 40 years, 251 days, he became the oldest pitcher in history to record a perfect game, bettering Cy Young, who was 37 years, 37 days on May 5, 1904. Johnson's gem was the 15th in modern day regular season history, the 16th including Don Larsen's perfect effort for the Yankees in the 1956 World Series.

Johnson fanned 13 in the 117-pitch performance which concluded with a 98-mph pitch to Eddie Perez to end the game. It was the first no-no in franchise history and first perfect game in the Majors since David Cone on July 18, 1999, in Yankee Stadium against Montreal. It was also the first perfect game in the National League since Montreal's Dennis Martinez retired all 27 Dodgers he faced on July 28, 1991, in Chavez Ravine. The box score:

D. BAXTER THE BOBCAT

Mascot

HEIGHT, WEIGHT:

6-0, 200

INTRODUCED:

June 23, 2000

RESIDENCE:

Baxters Den
at Chase Field

D. Baxter the Bobcat came out of the bag on June 23, 2000, at Chase Field. The idea for the mascot came from Brantley Bell, son of former second baseman Jay Bell, who explained to his dad that the team should have a “BOB” cat as a mascot since the team played in the BOB (Bank One Ballpark). Bell informed management about his son’s idea and the mascot was developed.

Today, Baxter has gained acceptance throughout the baseball world for his athleticism and an infamous “fur” ball. In addition to his numerous game-day responsibilities, Baxter also serves as an ambassador for the D-backs organization, venturing off the field to visit hospitals, schools, community festivals, and corporate functions throughout the Valley and the state of Arizona. At every home game, Baxter can be found signing autographs and taking photographs with all of his adoring fans.

For more information on Baxter, call (602) 462-6630.

D-BACKS ALL-TIME FIRST DRAFT PICKS

The D-backs did not take the field until March 31, 1998, but started stocking their minor league system beginning with the 1996 draft. ITEMS OF INTEREST

BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP QUALIFICATIONS: To win a batting title a player must have 502 or more actual plate appearances, the equivalent of 3.1 appearances for each of the 162 scheduled games.

DISABLED LISTS:

(1) 15-DAY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be on the list at one time.

(2) EMERGENCY DISABLED LIST--The minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. There is no limit on the number of players on this list at one time, but his list may only be used when the club is at the maximum limit of 40 players under control. Players on the 60-day list do no count against the 40-man roster.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE CHAMPION QUALIFICATIONS: To win the ERA title a pitcher must have at least as many innings pitched as the number of games scheduled for each club in his league that season and have the lowest ERA.

MAJOR LEAGUE YEAR: 172 days constitutes a full year of Major League service.

PINCH HITTING: A player shall be considered a pinch-hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around in the inning and a pinch hitter comes up a second time, he will not be considered a pinch hitter the second time.

ROOKIE QUALIFICATIONS: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has:

(1) Exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues, or

(2) Accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-man roster (excluding time in military service).

SAVE RULE: A pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and

(2) He is not the winning pitcher, and

(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:

(a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches at least one inning, or

(b) He enters the game regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or

(c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

SUSPENDED GAMES: For the purpose of this rule, all performances in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on original date of this game.

WAIVER REGULATIONS: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of at bats into the number of hits.

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, take that number and divide it by the total innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

MAGIC NUMBERS: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

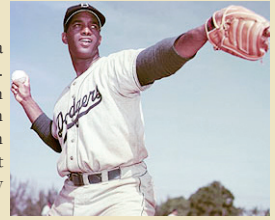

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

JOE BLACK

On May 17, 2002, Major League Baseball and the Arizona Diamondbacks suffered a great loss with the passing of Joseph Black, Jr.. He began his playing career in the Negro Leagues and shuffled through various professional leagues before making his Major League debut in 1952 with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a teammate of Jackie Robinson. In his rookie season, Joe made baseball history when he became the first African-American pitcher to win a World Series game and was eventually named the National League Rookie of the Year.

Joe remained an integral part of baseball following his playing days. As Vice President of B.A.T., the Baseball Assistance Team, he dedicated his time to helping fellow baseball players who had fallen on hard times. He contributed his vast knowledge of the game as a consultant to the Commissioner of Major League Baseball. A resident of Phoenix, he worked in the D-backs' Community Affairs department, sharing his stories as a guest speaker for numerous community groups.

Beyond baseball, Joe was a pioneer in the business world and worked tirelessly to impact the civil and human rights advancements for minorities.

In remembrance of Joe, a baseball bearing his name hangs from the rafters of Chase Field, along with the retired number of his former Brooklyn Dodger teammate Jackie Robinson.

The Arizona Fall League honors Joe's memory with the Joe Black Trophy, awarded to the league's Most Valuable Player each year.

PGA GOLFER BACKS D-BACKS

Starting in 2008, the Arizona Diamondbacks and former Arizona State University golfer Chez Reavie entered into a unique partnership for the MLB club to sponsor the Scottsdale, Ariz. resident during his rookie season on the PGA Tour. Reavie wore the D-backs "A" logo on his Quagmire Golf shirts and featured the team's "D" snake logo on his Titleist golf bag in most of the PGA Tour events in 2008 and will continue to do so in 2009.

After winning his first PGA Tour event when shooting a final-round 70 to win the RBC Canadian Open at Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville, Ontario in July 2008, the national golf press dubbed him the "Small Unit." At 5-foot-9, the "Small Unit" moniker was a joking reference to former D-backs pitcher Randy Johnson, who is 6-foot-10. He led the RBC Canadian Open wire to wire and finished 17-under to beat Billy Mayfair by three strokes. For earning his first career PGA Tour victory, Reavie threw out the first pitch prior to a D-backs game at Chase Field in September 2008.

Reavie became one of 12 first-time winners on the PGA Tour in 2008, including four rookie winners. He made the cut in 21 of his 30 tournaments and also ranked 71st on the PGA Tour money list with $1,444,102 in earnings in 2008.

"We hope that attaching our brand to one of the up-and-coming golfers on tour will be beneficial again after Chez was one of the few rookies to win a PGA Tour event in 2008," said D-backs' President and CEO Derrick Hall. "It makes it even more special to know that Chez is an enthusiastic D-backs fan."

Reavie won the 2001 U.S. Public Links during his three-time All-America career at ASU. He joined the Nationwide Tour in 2006, made the cut in his first 15 starts and finished in the Top 25 on eight occasions. After five placements of 13th or better in his first 12 events in 2007, Reavie won the Knoxville Open and assured himself of joining the PGA Tour in 2008.

REMEMBERING OUR FRIENDS

John Michaelson Radio Booth

The Sports 620 KTAR Radio booth at Chase Field was named after John Michaelson prior to the 2001 season, honoring the veteran producer/engineer who passed away in the winter of 2000. A veteran behind the scenes in radio broadcasting for years, including three seasons on D-back broadcasts, John was a tireless worker and friend to all who came in contact with him.

Steve Pascente Memorial Press Lounge

Steve Pascente was one of the most dedicated at his craft and died while on location covering football in Washington D.C. His wife, Julie, has kept his memory alive with the Steve Pascente Charitable Foundation, which supports a variety of foundations including Widowed With Children, The Steve Pascente Memorial Scholarships at Arizona State University and The Andre House. When the D-backs opened the 1998 season against the Colorado Rockies, Nick Pascente, the son of Steve and Julie, served as honorary batboy.

Dick Dozer Memorial Press Box

Dick Dozer spent the majority of his life covering Major League Baseball for the Chicago Tribune, but he was hardly a stranger to the Valley. After leaving the beat of the big leagues, he arrived in Phoenix and wrote for the Gazette, while also contributing his time in organizing the annual "Dream Game," an oldtimers contest that benefitted the Phoenix Memorial Hospital Foundation, and working with the Mesa Ho-Ho-Kams. Dozer was BBWAA Chapter President in 1976. He passed away in 1994, yet his memory lives on daily in the D-backs' front office. His son, Rich, was an integral player in the D-backs inception serving as team President from 1995 through 2006 and has an executive conference room named in his honor.
